Consumer Services

Consumer Assistance and Disputes Resolution

Consumer Assistance

Understanding credit and how it affects consumer choices is critical, particularly when it comes to home buying. That's why CoreLogic Credco has a team of credit professionals dedicated to helping consumers take control of their credit and improve their overall credit health.

Our Consumer Assistance Services is available to all Credco customers to help them better understand what is in their credit reports and how it impacts them. We can even make recommendations to assist them with strategies for establishing and improving their credit history.

Consumer Disputes Resolution

When you order credit information from Credco, your clients get free access to our convenient, toll-free consumer disputes service. With just one call, our FCRA-certified specialists will work hand-in-hand with your clients to resolve any discrepancies with the national credit bureaus. As a single contact point, our Consumer Disputes Resolution service makes the often complicated and time-consuming credit dispute process easier for your clients, and you.

“One-call” Dispute Resolution

DISPUTE INVESTIGATIONS
We investigate tradelines by working directly with the credit bureaus.

CONSUMER INTERACTION
We actively communicate the results of our investigative process to the consumer.

BUREAU COMMUNICATION

Our Consumer Disputes team works with the bureaus on the consumer's behalf to update incorrect data.

FCRA COMPLIANCE

Credco strictly adheres to the guidelines set by the FCRA regarding timeframes, forms and procedures.

“With proper guidance and education, consumers can feel empowered to move ahead in their dream to achieve homeownership.”
